

15 Key learnings from great marketers

Written by Candice S. Edey

Saturday, 22 August 2009 13:43 - Last Updated Sunday, 23 August 2009 17:09

Looking for some inspiration from some great entrepreneurs?....read on.

- Don't try to be all things. Paul Goveas, Bridge Clinic -
- Copy the best ideas from Dick Smith, Dick Smith Electronics together under one roof -
- Do things differently from Evan Mordkhetich, Pharmacia than go head-to-head -
- Great people need the support of Di Mento, Teessey One need to build a business that is process or
- Anticipating and shaping, John King, Jurisdiction Enterprises - 'heart reading, not mind reading' -
- Look for the right type of Patricia Kavanagh, K&Z The right type of space to be in -
- Make sure your idea is Lois Puller, Lysy, Lysy what the customer wants -
- A passionate and persistent Terese Reinhold, Lysy that is bigger than the business -
- Believe in what you want Barb DeCorti, Energy you have staying power. -

- Try to find mentors who Janice Attili, Boost Juice in the past. -
- Never let the fear of losing Logiplay, Logiplay the game Jane Active Wear and Bodywise
- The Hengehog Concept Natalie Blom, Blaby Cosmetics and stick to it -
- Make sure every client Kristy Deussen, M&M Haircut with Real Estate of marketing - to have custom
- Make sure the early Kevin Barley, Corporate Housing you want it to be in the long term. Even th
- Take risks and make Kristina-Karen, The K&K not always the right ones, as long as you learn from

These extracts are taken from the following:

John C. Lyons and Edward de Bono have written a great book titled "Marketing without money: How 20 top Australian Entrepreneurs crack markets with their minds". Below are some key learnings that can be applied to your business.

"Female Entrepreneurs: Leading Australian Businesswomen" by Leiza Clark (2006). New Holland Publishers (Australia) PTY.Ltd.